COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND EVALUATION

SUBMISSION OF ASSIGNMENTS:

This is the most important item in this syllabus.

The following guidelines will be used when submitting assignments:

Assignments will only be submitted in the “Assignment Box” for that week. This means that when there are multiple chapters assigned in a given week, all chapter assignments for that week must be cut and pasted into the Assignment Box for that week. This includes the “Week 1 Submitting Assignments” assignment and Research Paper assignments BUT DOES NOT include the Final Research Paper. (See Research Paper Instructions) Presentable formatting and grammar is expected in your work. Your grade depends upon it.

We will be using the Blackboard "Messages" function that is on the Blue Menu in Tools-Communication for all instructor communication. This is a REQUIRED item. You can access this from any computer and it makes it easier for us to track what has been exchanged between us. Call if urgent please.

SIGNING INTO COURSE: (mandatory) To be accomplished after you read through to the end.

All students are required to submit the Week 1 Assignment to the instructor by Sunday of the first week of class with the following information using the Submissions of Assignments instructions above:

2. A statement acknowledging that you have read and understand this syllabus.
3. A brief paper on why you are taking this course and what you expect to get from the course. Include how this course may relate to your current employment. Follow the submission instructions above.

Remember! All on-line course students are required to have access to the Internet and an e-mail account. All information exchanges between instructor and student and assignments will be only through Class Messages.

There will be one course quiz and two text quizzes, a Mid Term and a Final exam. All quizzes and the exams will be open book. The quizzes will cover the chapters as shown above and the exams will cover chapters 1 through 16 as divided below. All quizzes and the exams will be administered on the Blackboard course website.
