Textbook: Hosmer, L.T. (2006). The Ethics of Management, 6th edition.
Boston: McGraw-Hill Irwin

Course Description: This course offers an in-depth investigation of the characteristics of ethical and effective management, including an assessment of leadership styles within the context of a Christian value system. Ethical reasoning is developed and applied to a variety of business situations.

Assignments:

Weekly Reading:

Students will be required to read the textbook as assigned per week. In addition, students will be asked to post two researched articles summaries regarding management ethics that they obtain from an Internet/online library search. Discussion on these textbook and researched topics will be a weekly activity in the discussion forums.

Threaded Discussion Board (Graded, 5-points per week):

Students are required to respond to weekly discussion questions posted on the discussion board section. Course participation grades will be based on weekly discussion board activity.

Weekly Case Reports (Graded, 10-points per case):

Students will choose one case report to complete for each of the six sections of the course textbook.

Midterm Exam (Graded, 50-points):

Students will complete an online midterm exam encompassing the first half of the course material. The exam will be in a short answer format.

Final Exam: (Graded, 50-points):

Students will complete an online final exam encompassing the second half of the course material. The exam will be in a short answer format exam.
