April 2022

HELLO FROM THE DEAN

Hello everyone,
I hope you are all doing well. We had a great Language Festival, thanks to the hard work of Dr. Heath, Dr. Mora, and Mrs. Edlin. Sigma Tau Delta's Blind Date with a Book and Game Night were fun events. Thanks to those who came out. Next is the Symposium. I hope you will all submit some of your amazing writing to present. The winner gets money ($100), name on a plaque, and a plaque to take home. Registration for Fall begins this Monday. If you need help registering for classes, be sure to see your advisor.

If you are reading this, email Dr. Mendoza the date of the Symposium. You will be put into a drawing for a prize at the symposium.

STUDY TOUR TO THE UK

We still have openings to go on the Study Tour to the UK May 2023. After you sign-up, you have until next Spring to pay your bill, and can get a full refund almost up to the end. It is a great experience and a way to get up to 6-hours. Undergraduate and graduate students, alumni, and adjuncts are all invited to come. Check it out here:

IMPORTANT DATES

Pre-Registration for Fall 23 begins—April 4
Symposium—April 19

Induction Ceremony: Sigma Tau and Alpha Mu—Apr. 22

Write to Ignite Virtual Writing Conference—June 4

OUR LITTLE LIBRARY OPENS MONDAY

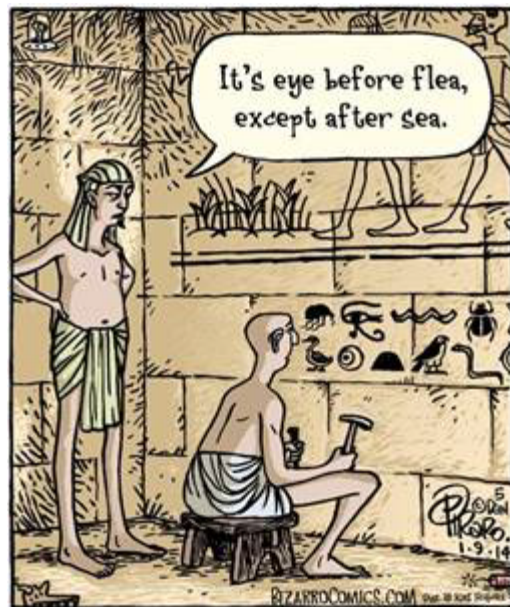

The free little library will be open in the L&L Hallway for anyone to partake. The way it works is... you take a book to read, and you leave a book for someone else.

FUN CORNER

"I hope to someday write something worth plagiarizing" (author unknown).

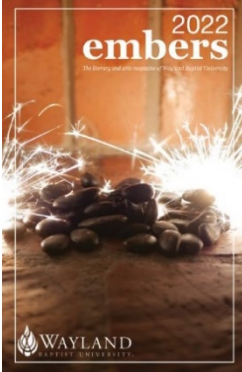

Writing is 10% typing, and 90% staring at a screen to find a better way to describe someone eating a piece of toast.

L&L CELEBRATES

Accomplishments? – Be sure to let us know when you get a job, publish, win an award, etc.

Embers Literary and Arts Magazine

Embers is in production and will be printed in late April! If you are included in the magazine, pick up your complimentary copy from Asta Edlin (Gates Hall 201) before you leave campus for summer break. Extra copies are available for $5 donation.

We want to celebrate with you. You can email them to mendozak@wbu.edu.
