January 2022

HELLO FROM THE DEAN

WELCOME BACK L&L Family!

I hope you all had a nice break and are ready to dig in. If you have any issues with your schedule, please come see me or your advisor. There is a lot happening this semester, so please be sure to check your email.

~Dr. Mendoza

Col. 3:23 - "Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters" (ESV).

REMINDERS

MANDATORY SCHOOL MEETING

Mark your calendars! All L&L majors are required to attend our school meeting on Friday, January 14, at 1:00 p.m. (Minors are also invited) in the Gates Hall Auditorium. Pizza will be provided.

IMPORTANT DATES

Mandatory School Meeting—January 14

ANNOUNCEMENTS

This Valentine's Day, you can have the perfect date, whether it is someone dark and brooding like

Edgar Allan Poe, whimsical like Douglas Adams, or deep like Toni Morrison. Mark your calendar for Friday, February 11! More information coming!

ATTENTION HUMANITIES MAJORS!

If you are a humanities major, have a good GPA, and have not started your senior year yet, you have the chance to get two degrees at the same time (BA & MA in Humanities) in only five years. Come see Dr. Mendoza about more information!

STUDY TOUR: UK

We will be going to England May 2023. Mark your calendars! Stay tuned for more information. COMING SOON!

FUN CORNER

The past, the present, and the future walked into a coffee shop. It was tense.

Language and Culture Festival—
February 8

Blind Date with a Book—February 11

I'm reading a book on anti-gravity. It's impossible to put down.

L&L CELEBRATES

DR. KUHLMANN—The School of Languages and Literature is pleased to announce a forthcoming book, published by TCU Press and entitled Sue Monk Kidd: A Collection of Critical Essays, edited by Dr. Deborah Kuhlmann, with contributions from Drs. Heath, McClenagan, Kuhlmann and Mayfield as well as a preface written by the author herself, Dr. Sue Monk Kidd.

Accomplishments? – Be sure to let us know when you get a job, publish, win an award, etc. We want to celebrate with you. You can email them to mendozak@wbu.edu.
