Greg Black Memorial Endowed Scholarship

Greg Black, son of Herschel and Ruth Black, was born in Groom, Texas. He moved to Hereford, Texas with his family in 1964. After graduation from Hereford High School, he attended West Texas State University, where he graduated in 1976. He returned to Hereford and made it his home. He was Area Development Manager for Deaf Smith Rural Electric at the time of his death. He was very active in his community and civic activities and also First Baptist Church. At the age of thirty, he went to be with the Lord to whom he had given his life at the age of seven. He left behind his wife, Debbie, a son Eric, and a daughter Erin, as well as a brother, Carey Black, and his sister, Tonya Horrell. He was a friend to all.

His delightful sense of humor and dedication to achievement will live forever in the hearts of those who knew him. His contribution to the lives of others exemplifies his desire to make the world a better place to live.

Greg would be proud that his family is sharing in this way so that other young people may be able to have a more productive life.
