The Audrey and Lucian Morehead Endowed Scholarship

Lucian Morehead was born June 24, 1911 in Plainview, Texas. He was one of four children born to Edward John Morehead and Ethel Daily Morehead. His siblings were Richard, Dorothy Jane, and Marjorie Sue. Lucian graduated from Plainview High School in 1926, from Wayland College in 1928, from Baylor University in 1930, and from the University of Texas Law School in 1935. He practiced law in Plainview from 1935 until he moved to Austin in late 2002.

Audrey Farris Morehead was born October 2, 1913 in Floydada, Texas. She was one of three children born to John N. Farris and Lora Rucker Farris. Her brothers were John and Kinder. Audrey graduated from Floydada High School in 1930 and from Ward Belmont College in Nashville, Tennessee in 1932. She also attended Texas University and Texas Tech College. Her major was Home Economics, a subject which was taught to women in a Works Progress Administration Program in Lubbock and after her marriage in Plainview.

Audrey and Lucian married September 4, 1937 in her mother’s home in Floydada. Born to this marriage were John, an Austin lawyer, and Lucinda (Garrett) who teaches at College of the Northwest in Kirkland, Washington. Audrey and Lucian were active in their church (Episcopal after the early 1960s) and in many social, charitable, and civic activities. Lucian was also active in many professional activities.