The Clinton and Gerry Kennedy Endowed Scholarship

This scholarship is given in memory of Edwin Lee Kennedy, brother of Clinton Kennedy. He was severely mentally and physically handicapped and died at the age of 15. The scholarship is designated with concern and compassion to support students with physical/mental challenges to enable them to further their education and lead more productive lived. Clinton Kennedy, a native of Lamesa and 40-year employee of the Farmers Home Administration, and Gerry, native of Crosbyton, were faithful members of First Baptist Church in Muleshoe, then First Baptist-Plainview and sang in the choir at both churches. Clinton was a deacon and coordinated the nursing home and homebound ministries in Plainview for many years and was active in Faith in Sharing House community food bank. A strong believer in Matthew 25:35-36, he also supported other Christian ministries. The Kennedy’s had two married daughters and four grandchildren.
