The Jenkins-Selman Family Endowed Scholarship

The Jenkins and Selman families have long-standing ties to Wayland. From the early days of the twentieth century into the twenty-first century, members of the families have benefited from the Christian education supplied by Wayland. These members included:

John Cooper Jenkins – 1924 graduate
Meri Jenkins Schrader – 1987 graduate
Summer Mohon Perkins – 1998 graduate
Lois Chaddick Selman – student in 1948
Jessica Mohon Alayon – 2001 graduate
Anthony Jenkins Haney – 2009 graduate
Hubert Jenkins – student in 1920s
Tamara Haney – 2008 graduate
Robert Lee Selman – student in 1948
Edna Selman Jenkins – 1953 graduate

Because of their love for Wayland and their conviction that this institution offers an opportunity for a superior education in an environment that encourages Christian growth, the Jenkins-Selman Family Endowed Scholarship is established at Wayland.
