The Wendell and Juanita Campbell Endowed Scholarship

George Wendell Campbell was born in Hollis, Oklahoma, on July 23, 1930. The family—a sister, mother, father, and Wendell—moved to Wolfforth, Texas, in the spring of 1936. Most of World War II, they lived in Pampa, Borger, Dumas, Texas, and Guymon, Oklahoma. They moved back to Wolfforth in time for four years of high school. Twenty-one months with the U.S. Army at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and in Germany permitted one and one-half years of college night school. He then had two years of inactive Reserve, then an Honorable Discharge as a Corporal.

He farmed from 1946 through 1961, spent fourteen years with an oil company, and fourteen years in medical collections.

Juanita Ruth Gibson was born at Sagerton, Texas, to a farm family on October 11, 1932. Her family moved to Lubbock when she was very young. Juanita is an accomplished artist working in mediums of oils, acrylics, and wood. One of Wendell’s main hobbies is woodworking, and the Campbells enjoy wildlife photography, motorcycling, camping, hunting, fishing, and travel. They were married December 22, 1950. They have a daughter, Sherrv Bonita Campbell, who graduated from Wayland in 1974, and a son, Garry Lynn Campbell, who attended Wayland in 1973 and 1974. Juanita and Wendell now reside in Lubbock and attend Oakwood Baptist Church.
