W.D. Turner Endowed Scholarship

W.D. (Dub) Turner was born in Texas in 1910. He became a Christian in 1950 and was ordained as a deacon in 1956. Dub married Gladys Gregory in 1931, and they had five children and fourteen grandchildren.

Dub owned a construction company in Lubbock that specialized in highway construction. As a member of First Baptist Church in Lubbock, Dub served on numerous committees. He helped establish the Indiana Avenue Baptist Church in Lubbock and served as a deacon there until his death in 1989. Dub also served as a trustee for Wayland Baptist University from 1971-1980, acting as chairman of the board from 1976-1978.
