

Baptist Minister's Dependent Scholarship

Wayland Baptist University provides a tuition scholarship for the dependent spouse or the dependent single child of a full-time Baptist minister, missionary, denominational minister, or staff minister serving a Baptist congregation. Dependents of retired full-time Baptist ministers may also receive this scholarship upon the approval of the School of Religion and Philosophy.

Full-time status as defined at the campus of attendance is required to receive the scholarship. Twelve hours on the Plainview campus and nine hours on the external campuses is considered full-time.

The award amount for students attending the Plainview campus is $500 per semester. This scholarship is available only for the spring and fall semesters at the Plainview campus.

The award amount for student's attending the external campus centers if $190 per semester. This scholarship is only for the fall, winter and spring semesters at the external campus centers.

Non-enrollment in one of the approved terms does not translate to summer term eligibility. The scholarship is awarded for one year and the student must reapply each year to maintain award eligibility. To retain eligibility, students must maintain a 2.0 GPA.

Scholarships are limited to the University budget allocation. The scholarship is awarded for one year and the student must reapply each year to maintain award eligibility.

Applicants must complete an application and furnish a letter from an official of the minister's church verifying the minister's active service.
